

Color the Pipes!

Robert Cotton, "tobacco-pipe-maker," arrived at Jamestown in April 1608. Archaeologists have found over 1,500 fragments of his pipes. Some are decorated with a diamond design. Others show the names of important Jamestown colonists, including Captain Samuel Argall.

Once you have finished coloring your artifacts have an adult show you what they look like in real life by visiting:
<https://historicjamestowne.org/jr-kids-at-home> #colorourcollections #JRKids

Your Name: _____