Indulge your WanderLove at Jamestown this Holiday Season
Explore Jamestown: America's Birthplace

JAMESTOWN, Va. (December 14, 2022) –

The Jamestown Rediscovery Foundation invites visitors to “Explore Jamestown: America’s Birthplace” this holiday season. With support from the Virginia Tourism Corporation’s (VTC) Recovery Marketing Leverage Program, the campaign includes ten themed itineraries curated for the unique interests of visitors travelling to Jamestown and Williamsburg. The final itinerary – focused on holiday activities – is out now at historicjamestowne.org/visit/virginia-tourism.

Jamestown Rediscovery Foundation partnered with five area businesses and organizations for the initiative: Spoke & Art; Magnolia Catering at the Dale House Café; Billsburg Brewery; the Virginia Capital Trail Foundation; and James City County Marina and Beach. Each of these businesses offers a fun, exceptional experience in the community that surrounds Historic Jamestowne. Whether visitors want to explore the outdoors, learn something new, or sample the local dining scene, there’s something for everyone at Jamestown.

“Celebrating local businesses is so important at the holidays and throughout the year. Our itineraries can be used any time to plan a fun weekend getaway or staycation. Even in the colder months, there’s plenty to explore at Jamestown,” said Lauren T. Furey, Director of Visitor Services for Historic Jamestown.

The entire archive of itineraries is downloadable on Historic Jamestown’s website at historicjamestowne.org/visit/virginia-tourism.
